

2025 Social Practice Expo

Application Guidelines: 2025 Social Practice Expo

This event aims to promote the integration of classroom learning with social action. It will showcase outstanding student projects from the past two academic years that encourage both faculty and students to step outside the comfort zone of higher education and create a deeper social impact. The key details are as follows:

I. Eligibility

Teams must be composed of students and faculty from the three universities of the NTU System: National Taiwan University of Science and Technology, National Taiwan Normal University, and National Taiwan University. The team leader must be a currently enrolled student at one of these three schools. Other team members can include graduates of these universities. Full-time or part-time faculty members can serve as advisors.
